Ref. Vag. Hist - Vol. 13-14 - also the Fettingell book which is very good on the Jones fam. The information on the Jones that married into the Short (Martha Jones) is not correct. She knows this, but it was all I got at that time. I go into the Rummole through the Mary Batts line. Thomas, John who married Martha Mallory, this line opens up into the 16. Baron's who had children Miss Hinton passed my paper two yrs ago.
 (If you are on this line will be glad to give it to you)

Both of these lines will take you into several Barons.

AMERICAN ANCESTOR OF MRS. JOHN FRANKLIN LITTLE: PAT. NO. 331

Martha Mallory, dau of Thomas Mallory, Dean of Chester and wife, Elizabeth Vaughan, dau of Bishop Richard Vaughan and wife, Elizabeth.
Martha Mallory married John Batte, Esquire, Captain of regiment of Agbrigg and Morley, Justice of the Peace in the West Riding, son of Robert, Batte of Rexard, fellow and vice-master of University College Oxford, grandson of Henry Batte and gr. grandson of Henry Batte of Okewell in Birstall (in the West Riding Yorkshire) who lived in the reign of Henry the eighth, Edward the seventh and until the second year of Queen Elizabeth. His son Thomas Batte married Mary; was Magistrate of Henrico Co. Va. and was recognized in economic and social affairs. Through my American ancestry Martha Mallory and John Batte
I am descended from the following Barons.
